NEWS FROM THE FRIARS

The gathering of the friars in Chapter this week has assigned the following friars to form the community of St. Bonaventure Friary in Toronto and elected/appointed them to their respective ministries. Friar Thomas Purcell, Guardian leader of the friary and Executive Director of St. Clare Inn; Friar Boniface Reinhart, sacramental minister at local churches; Friar Canice Connors, sacramental minister at St. Bonaventure Church; Friar Daniel Quackenbush, Associate Pastor for St. Bonaventure Church; Friar Richard Riccioli Pastor for St. Bonaventure Church and Chair of the Parochial Concerns Commission; Friar David Suckling, Pastoral Associate at St. Bonaventure Church. As previously mentioned Friar Mark Steed has been appointed Director of the National Shrine of Kateri Tekakwitha in Fonda, NY.

THE BIG GREEN FLAG

You can't help but notice the big green flag in front of the friary visible all the way from York Mills Road. The flag is our parish "logo" which was developed during our 50th Anniversary Golden Jubilee. The logo is a stylized "San Damiano" Cross with open borders which highlights our open community; the leaves point to our new growth. The logo was designed by Andy Tomcik, a member of our parishioner. The flagpole which is located on the Franciscans' property is actually a Bell Mobility tower. Bell Mobility pays rent for the land which hosts the tower and for the flag and its maintenance. There is no cost to the parish or the friars. The majority of the income from the rent is donated by the friars to the parish to assist with the care of the church property.
