Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

At one of his General Audiences Pope Francis reflected on the Good Samaritan. Which is the neighbour, the one in need or the one showing compassion to the one in need?

Love, the Lord tells us, is never abstract or distant; it “sees”, and it responds. The compassion shown by the Samaritan is an image of the infinite mercy of God, who always sees our needs and draws near to us in love. The command to love God and neighbour, then, is supremely practical; it entails caring for others even to the point of personal sacrifice.

By the end of the parable, we see that the “neighbour” is not so much the man in need, but rather the one who responded to that need with compassion. Jesus tells all of us to be neighbours in this sense: “Go and do likewise.” He Himself is the model of the Good Samaritan; by imitating His love and compassion, we show ourselves truly to be His followers.

Living the Gospel by supporting the Deaf community

Imagine you're a deaf child and your parents don't know sign language. Your parents could gesture in a rudimentary way, but how do you share your joys, fears and needs? Silent Voice, a ShareLife agency, teaches American Sign Language and Deaf culture to families so they can share a common language. "I'm so passionate about Silent Voice," says one grateful parent, "because their Family Communication Program rescues children from social isolation." Last year more than 700 Deaf people and their family members received help through Silent Voice.

It's a simple concept: love God with your whole being and put that love into practice. How is God calling you to love? Have you considered the way of loving called 'priesthood' or 'religious life'? If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, visit the website: www.vocationtoronto.ca; www.franciscans.org or speak with one of the friars.

And Now, A Word from Our Pastor

To mark his Feast Day (July 15), we've brought our statue of St. Bonaventure from its usual home in the Blessed Sacrament chapel to the front of our church. Sacred art – called iconography – is rich in symbolism. Our St. Bonaventure is dressed not in an elaborate vestment but in the simple habit of a Franciscan Friar. The habit is a reminder that throughout his life, St. Bonaventure was a friar who lived simply and served other Franciscans as a teacher and as leader of the Franciscan order. The tunic (robe) of the habit is covered by a short cape (capuche) worn over the shoulders; it represents Jesus' words: "Take my yoke upon yourself and learn from Me." The cord which encircles the waist bears three knots symbolizing the vows of a friar: obedience (to listen for the will of God), poverty (to claim nothing as his own) and chastity (to focus his heart to God). The rosary attached to the cord calls to mind St. Bonaventure's devotion to Mary, the Mother of God. The cross on the rosary is a reminder of the central place that the Cross-symbol of God's love – had in St. Bonaventure's spiritual life. The statue's unusual hat (called a galero) was worn by cardinal's in years past. On the statue, it represents St. Bonaventure's service to the Church. St. Bonaventure's hands hold a book symbolizing the many works he composed, and which continue to inspire the spirituality of the Friars. His most famous book- The Journey of the Mind into God- is a masterpiece showing that union with God in this life and the next is the goal of all prayer and study.

Who would have thought you could pack so much into a simple statue?

Happy St. Bonaventure Day!

Congratulations to Lyla Felicia Colella, Emily Ana Deaconu, Alana Katzman, Archer Owen Kenny and Zara Shah who were given new birth by water and the Holy Spirit and welcomed into God's Holy People through Baptism.

In honour and celebration of the Feast Day of St. Bonaventure the Ministry Centre is closed on Monday, July 15, 2019.
